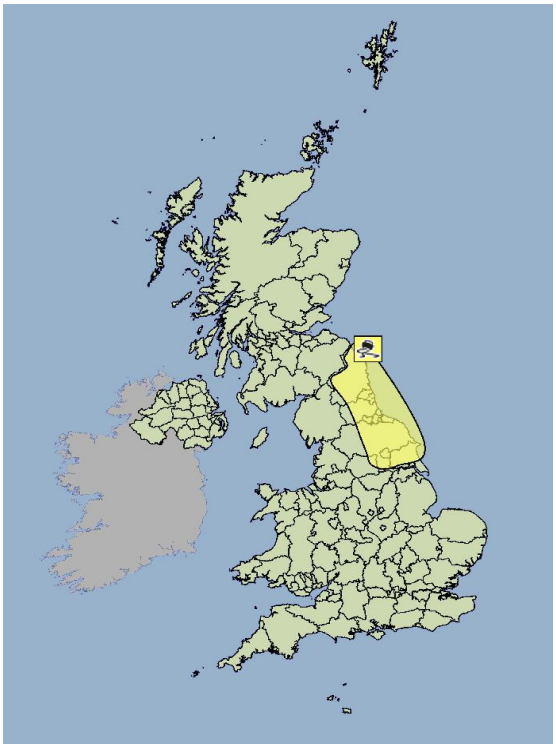
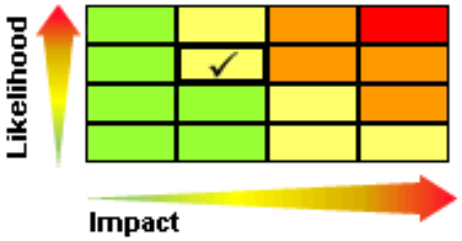
National Severe Weather Warning Service





Chief Forecasters Assessment
The mixture of rain, sleet and snow on Sunday afternoon will clear during the evening although many surfaces are expected to remain wet into Monday morning. As temperatures fall overnight some icy patches are expected to develop on untreated surfaces.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Ice

Valid from 18:00 on Sun, 21st Jan 2018 until 08:00 on Mon, 22nd Jan 2018

Icy patches are likely to form on Sunday night and last into Monday morning.

With surfaces left wet, from Sunday afternoon's mix of rain, sleet and snow, icy patches are likely to form overnight and into Monday morning on any untreated roads, pavements and cycle paths. Some injuries from slips and falls on icy surfaces are possible.
